

Regular Meeting Calendar

CLARK COUNTY BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS (BOF)

The swearing-in of Freeholders was performed by Judge Barbara Johnson at 6:00 p.m. on November 26, 2013. The first meeting of the BOF was held beginning at 6:30 p.m. on November 26, 2013. The regular meeting location of the BOF shall be 6th floor of the Clark County Public Services Center in either the hearing room or training room (depending upon availability with the hearing room by default). However, at least three regular meetings of the BOF are anticipated to be held in geographically dispersed areas of the county, most likely in Camas-Washougal, Battle Ground, and Ridgefield-La Center. The dates of those geographically dispersed meetings have yet to be determined.

Shown below are the board's regular meeting dates (with start times) as approved by the BOF on November 26, 2013:

- » December 10, 2013 (6:00 p.m.)
- » December 16, 2013 (6:00 p.m.)
- » The second and fourth Saturdays in January, February, and March 2014* (9:00 a.m.)
- » The second and fourth Tuesdays in April and May 2014* (6:00 p.m.)

The BOF intends to have the home rule charter completed by the end of May 2014 for submission to the Clark County electorate such that a vote on the charter will occur during the general election on November 4, 2014. The BOF recognizes that May is an ambitious and aggressive target date, and the BOF has confidence it will achieve that target. However, if need be, the BOF can continue work on finalizing the charter up through July 2014 and still submit it in time for the 2014 general election.

 Saturdays in January, February, and March 2014 are reserved in deference to the three Freeholders who actively serve our citizens in the Washington State Legislature. Depending upon the length of the legislative session, the BOF reserves the ability to convert Saturday dates in March 2014 to Tuesday evenings, or if a longer session, the ability to convert Tuesday dates in April 2014 to Saturdays.*
