

Clark College
ECONOMIC & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Did you know that Clark College's Community Education offers classes for home improvement and gardening, including organic gardening and restoring your vintage home? Our talented instructors do not sell products but offer consumer oriented advice and answer all kinds of questions. Our classes give you an insider's knowledge and innovative and helpful ideas to move your ideas into finished projects. Visit the Economic and Community Development website to learn more at <http://ecd.clark.edu>
