

An Ordinance relating to land use and zoning, implementing zoning authority under both RCW 35.63 and the Washington Constitution temporarily prohibiting all Collective Gardens as defined in RCW 69.51A.085.

WHEREAS, in 1998, the Washington voters chose to remove criminal penalties for patients who use medical cannabis for a debilitating or terminal conditions; and

WHEREAS, for the preceding 50+ years, production, processing, sale, possession or dispensing of cannabis was a crime in the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, in 2011, the legislature has sought to expand the opportunities to grow, produce, process and dispense medical cannabis in the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, the U. S. Attorneys Office has notified the legislature, the governor, and the Clark County Commissioners that such state legislation will not shield Washington citizens from the potential for federal prosecution; and

WHEREAS, the production, processing or dispensing of medical marijuana is an important public issue and the unplanned location of such facilities could cause serious harm to the public generally and particularly vulnerable populations, including youth; and

WHEREAS, serious issues remain regarding locational criteria of siting facilities containing medical marijuana from churches, schools, bus stops and other public gathering sites to ensure that the public is properly protected; and

WHEREAS, the Board is concerned that action of county employees issuing permits for the growth, production or distribution of Cannabis; and Collective Gardens will make them accessories to the commission of federal crimes based on correspondence from the US Attorney's Office; and

WHEREAS, the Board finds and concludes that until the federal/state conflict is resolved the citizens of Clark County will follow federal law related to collective gardens;

WHEREAS, Title 35.63 RCW and the Washington Constitution authorize the Board of County Commissioners to adopt police power ordinances to promote the public, health, safety, and welfare; and

WHEREAS, the Board has held a duly advertised public hearing in compliance with state law; now, therefore,
